

Nationally Recognized Trial Law Boutique

Tobin & Muñoz L.L.C.

For more than 25 years, Chicago and Washington, DC-based Tobin & Muñoz (T&M) has served as a nationally recognized trial law boutique and business consultant to a diverse range of clients including aggrieved individuals, small businesses, political committees and corporations. By understanding each client's needs and goals, T&M has recovered or protected hundreds of millions of dollars in clients' funds and assets.

T&M's four partners lead the firm:

- Craig D. Tobin—represents clients in high-profile and often highly contested civil and criminal matters and has regularly been voted as a Leading Lawyer for his unique and well-chronicled ability to further the client's best interests. As the firm's founder, advocates for the highest forms of justice just as he did as when he began his career in the Cook County Public Defender's elite Homicide Task Force in 1980.
- Tomas Petkus—in addition to his trial practice, serves as the firm's managing partner and has a long history of pioneering the use of computers, digital technology and litigation graphics to create a persuasive trial experience.

- George Muñoz—following his service as Former Assistant Secretary of the U.S. Treasury in the Clinton administration and later as President and CEO of the Overseas Private Investment Corp among other illustrious positions, he assists clients in corporate and commercial transactions, especially in international business and legal matters.
- Paula Fuller Tobin—formerly a partner with a large national law firm, has extensive experience in arbitration and civil litigation with an emphasis on professional liability related matters.
- Our Mentor and Inspiration—Hon. Robert J. Collins, 1911–1997, “He is the standard by which other criminal court judges are most often measured.”—as quoted in the Chicago Tribune.
